

SHORTLISTED: Redhill-based software company aquilaheywood has been shortlisted for the Badenoch and Clark Business of the Year Award in the National Business Awards South East Regional Programme 2008, which it won in 2006. The results will be announced in July and David Ackroyd, Chief Executive at aquilaheywood said: "It is a fantastic achievement to have reached the finals for a third consecutive year and just recognition of the dedication and hard work of all our staff."