Aquila Heywood announced as a Pensions Age Awards finalist

Aquila Heywood has been shortlisted for the Pensions Technology Firm of the Year award in the 2018 Pensions Age Awards.

Simon Barker, Group CEO said: 'We are delighted to have been shortlisted for this award. We've been working hard over the past year in transforming our business to an Agile methodology, and to have these efforts recognised and appreciated is fantastic. We strive to put our customers at the heart of what we do, and are working closely with our customers to ensure they have the tools and support they need to be legislative and GDPR-compliant.'

Now in their fifth year, the Pensions Age Awards, hosted by Pensions Age Magazine, are the showcase for excellence within the UK pensions industry: the Awards are unique in doing so.

Independently judged, the winners will be announced at the Awards Gala Dinner and Ceremony on 22 February 2018 at the prestigious location of the London Marriott Hotel, Grosvenor Square.

About the Awards

The Pensions Age Awards reward both the Pension Schemes and the Pensions Provides across the UK that have proved themselves worthy of recognition in these increasingly challenging economic times. The Awards represents the pinnacle of best practice, a chance to learn from the best, a fantastic gala dinner, entertainment and the opportunity to network with the best in the industry.
